1.0	From 27 June to 1 July, a total of 3,500 cases of and hand granades reached Nanning (108-18, 22-48) to Railroad. This was the largest shipment to reach N	ifles, machine guns, shell:	3 55

- 2. The Military Investigation Unit which was sent to Indochina by the Kwangsi Military District returned to Naming on 1 July. According to the statement of YEH Hus (%), a member of the unit who was originally a staff officer with the rank of major in the Kwangsi Military District, the forces of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam are in very good fighting spirit. Because they lack heavy weapons, however, they find it difficult to attain their military goal. If they were furnished sufficient heavy weapons, they could easily take the Red River Delta.
- 3. In Mengtzu (103-23, 23-20), K'aiyuan (103-10, 23-44), and P'ingpien (103-40, 22-54) on the Tunnan-Indochine border, the Tunnan Military District trained and equipped six DRV infantry battalions. In addition there were two anti-tank battalions and two transh portar battalions. They entered the northern part of Indochina at the end of June.
